

SAVE THE DATE.....

Andy Griffith - Andy Griffith is the director of MALIT, a Liverpool-based training company, who specialises in designing programmes of training, learning and development which change the knowledge, skills and habits of teachers, leaders and other professionals so that they have a more positive impact on learning.

Andy was the former lead writer and consultant for Comic Relief (2003-2007) and a consultant to BBC Education.

He is the creator of the Outstanding Teaching Intervention programme (Osiris) which has been recognised in the prestigious TES School Awards and has helped over 40 schools to move up Ofsted levels. This course has seen over 5,000 teachers go through it and is in its eleventh year. He is also the co-author of two best-selling books Engaging Learners (2012) and Teaching Backwards (2014).

Andy has been in the education industry for 28 years. First, as a full time teacher, and now is a part-time teacher, trainer, consultant and business leader. His company, Malit, run a range of training projects around the UK.

For more about courses offered by Andy and other Malit trainers go to: www.malit.org.uk

Wednesday 8th November 2017

- Half day sessions available – am or pm
- Cost £85/delegate
- Venue: Trinity Park Conferencing & Events Centre, Ipswich

To book places please email: jellis@farlingayekesgravetsa.co.uk or Tel: 01473 624855